Frequently asked questions

How much can I borrow?

The maximum PLUS loan amount you can borrow is the student's cost of attendance at Rochester University minus any other financial assistance your student receives. The cost of attendance is determined by RU.

What is the current interest rate?

For Direct PLUS Loans first disbursed on or after July 1, 2022 and before July 1, 2023, the interest rate is 7.54%. This is a fixed interest rate for the life of the loan.

Is there a charge for the Parent PLUS loan?

Yes, there is a loan origination fee on all Direct PLUS Loans. This loan fee is a percentage of the loan amount and is proportionately deducted from each loan disbursement. The origination fee for a Direct PLUS loan disbursed on or after October 1, 2022 and before October 1, 2023 is 4.228%.

How will I receive my loan money?

Your loan money will be sent to RU from the Department of Education and applied to the student's tuition and fee charges first. Any excess loan funds will be paid to you directly via check and mailed to parent borrower's home, unless you authorize the school to pay this money to your student.

What is considered "adverse credit?"

The federally established credit criteria states that a borrower is considered to have an adverse credit history if they have one or more debts that are 90 or more days delinquent or that are in collection or have been charged off during the two years preceding the date of the credit report, but only if the total combined outstanding balance of those debts is greater than $2,085.
